

ANTH 395/CLAS 390 – Spring 2010 – Academic Trip Abroad to Turkey ... and Beyond!

Library of Celsus (117 CE) – Ephesus, Turkey

Interested in seeing sites you've only heard about in class? Join us as we explore the gateway to the East and travel to the crossroads of various Ancient Mediterranean Cultures!

This Spring Semester (2010) the Departments of Anthropology and Classical Studies will be conducting a study trip abroad to Turkey and possibly some areas of Greece. The final itinerary will include Istanbul, Troy, Pergamon, Ephesus, Smyrna, and Halicarnassos, along with selected other sites. We will examine the various cultures of this land – the Hittites, Assyrians, Persians, Greeks (ancient and modern), Romans, Byzantines, and Ottoman-Turks. This course (0.5 credit) will run from late April until late May (preparatory classes in late April, departure in early May, return in late May). The final cost has yet to be determined, but in the past such courses have cost ca. $3500 CAD, which includes airfare, hotels (+ breakfast!) and several course related expenses. This does not include the cost of tuition, spending money, or money for food other than breakfasts. Some financial assistance may be available to qualified students. Students will do individualized projects for credit. Final details will be announced as soon as possible, but in the meantime....
